

Devon Dougherty is the Director of Development, Planned Giving at Whittier College. He is an experienced fundraising and communications professional with demonstrated history of success with nonprofits in education, youth development, and health care.

Devon is a graduate of The Heritage Institute and is a certified Heritage Design Professional™. He is skilled in Planned Giving, Annual Giving, Major Giving, Nonprofit Management, Budgeting, Strategic Planning, Marketing, Public Relations, and Coaching.

Devon received a BA from Occidental College and his MBA from the University of California, Irvine. He is an author and instructor in fundraising and communications. Devon is also an Eagle Scout.